

CELEBRATE THIRTY-THIRD WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Dr. and Mrs. McTaggart, of Ray, entertained on Wednesday, Dec. 26, in honor of their wedding anniversary. The dining room was decorated in keeping with the holiday season. The hostess used a linen table cloth which was a wedding present from the late Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Wood; she also used many china dishes that were wedding presents thirty-three years ago. A small Christmas tree on a table mirror and Christmas place cards on white paper napkins added to the table decorations. A four-course co-operative dinner was served, consisting of oyster stew, roast chicken with mashed potatoes and gravy, dressing and other good things, coffee, pie and fruit salad, cake and ice cream. Mrs. Burton Handy with well-chosen words, presented to Dr. and Mrs. McTaggart a beautiful gold-colored bedspread, a gift from the Cyrus Handy and Wilson Duguid families who were guests. There was also a Christmas exchange of small gifts.
