McTaggart—Handy Wedding.

On Thursday, Dec. 26, 1895, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Handy, near Ray, Dr. Theodore McTaggart, of Ray, and Miss Mary Handy were united in marriage, Rev. Eagy, of Reading, performing the interesting ceremony that made them husband and wife. A large number of invited guests from Angola, Pleasant Lake, Fremont, Jonesville, Rives Junction, Ray, Clear Lake, Denver, Col., and St. Thomas, Ontario, were present, and many beautiful and useful presents were received by the happy pair. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Wesley Uhl, who it was remembered, played the same march at the wedding of the bride's sister just thirteen years before. The bride looked her loveliest in a tan broadcloth dress with a corsage of cream satin, white gloves and slippers to match, with cream roses in her hair and a bouquet of cream roses. The groom was handsomely attired in a black dress suit. The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Matson, of Pleasant Lake, and J. W. Keefer, the groomsman, gracefully performed their respective parts.

An exceptionally pleasing feature of the elegant wedding feast that followed consisted in responses to toasts announced by Mr. Keefer, toastmaster, who himself appropriately responded to "The Bride and Bridegroom." "Our Profession" was then announced and Dr. H. D. Wood made the response. Rev. O. E. Eagy and W. P. Tompkins then responded to "Our Calling," and Wesley Uhl to "The Layman." Dr. and Mrs. McTaggart will reside in Ray where he will practice his profession, and the REPUBLICAN joins their many friends in wishing them a long life of the choicest blessings.
